1.2.4 Students are encouraged and facilitated to undergo self-study courses online/offline in several ways

Self-study course is extremely important when it comes to retaining knowledge and do well in examination. Self-study is the method of learning on their own, a method of direct studying outside the classroom. Before the exams, (internal and external) institute provides adequate facilities for self-study courses. The students are divided into smaller groups and they can use Library facilities, computer lab and can also seek personal guidance. Institute is ready to help the Learners to find out and retain information better and can boost their learning experience for the helping them in increase of their grades. Self-learning materials are educational tools meant to help learners obtain information and skills on their own, without the assistant of a teacher for instructor. books, videos, online courses, and other resources that learners may access at their own pace and convenience are example of these items. There are various advantages to using self-learning resources. For starters, learners have the choice to pick what and when they want to learn. This allowed student to concentrate on topics of interest to them and study at their own speed.

Initiative for self-study courses:

• Provision in the timetable:

 Institute encourage and facilitate students to undergo for self-study courses. While preparing academic calendar and timetable, enough time is considered for self-study course as half an hour is reserved for library work and self study.

• Facilities in the library:

Library is having DELNET database access given to all the students and faculty which covers 40478011 bibliographic records 112590 periodicals, 1613 e-books, 1025 audio cassettes and 148995 dissertations and thesis. Library has a membership to SPPU Jaykar Knowledge Resource Centre. Institute provides its user id and password to access the DELNET Database. It is displayed on Library notice board as well.

Library Services and Facilities:

- Digital Library facility
- > Free Wi-Fi facility
- > Reprography facility
- > Issue Return service
- > Reference service
- ➤ E-books
- ➤ E-journals
- Print journals
- > Open access system
- > Internet facility

- > User orientation
- > Newspaper clipping
- ➤ B.Ed. syllabus
- > Previous year question papers.
- > Project/practical of previous year used as reference.
- ➤ Library has taken membership of Jaykar Knowledge Resource Center.

The institute currently does not have remote access to library resources. Student and staff are using digital library resources and online net surfing; recently institute has subscribed to DELNET - An India International Centre Library. It aims to collect, store and disseminate information besides offering computerized services to users. Its login details are shared with students and faculty as well as displayed on notice board.

• Computer Lab Facilities:

Institution has ICT enabled Computer Lab of seating capacity of 25 students. Computers are interconnected with LAN, internet and Wi-Fi connectivity. Institute premises is a free Wi-Fi campus.

• Academic Advice/ Guidance:

Institute has a Mentor-Mentee groups. B.Ed. First year as per micro-teaching groups are formed. Concern micro group in-charge is considered as a Mentor. Mentor continuously take feedback and follow-up of his/ her group students' progress. Mentors discuss in groups about to achieve excellence in their studies. Students' difficulties, problems, queries are discussed in Mentor- mentee group meetings on regular basis. Students are encouraged to participate for online selfstudy courses. Mentor-mentee groups at institute are meant to develop professional skills and competencies in teacher training program.
